UNIVERSAL REFLECTION QUESTIONS
For use in virtual PDs

- What was the main idea of the article?
- What are the key points of the article?
- How does this apply to our work / your role?
- What is one new term you learned or had clarified?
- Is the topic familiar to you? If so, how does it build on prior knowledge?
- What questions does this bring up for you?
- Whose experience does this article center?
- How does this connect to what we learned in our last training?
- What is one way you could apply this in your classroom?
- How would you summarize this article to someone in an “elevator pitch”?
- Where did I feel my thinking being challenged in this content?
- Where did I feel myself having an emotional reaction to this content?
- Which of our organizational values does this speak to?
- Which of your classroom values does this speak to?
- What parts of the article did you disagree with?
- Which part did the writer/speaker seem most passionate about?
- What was the most memorable line or image for you?
- How would you explain this concept to your students and/or their family?
- How would a good teacher explain these concepts to you? How would they know you had mastered it?
- How helpful do you find this content? Can you connect it to an idea or article that would strengthen or support it?
WEB RESOURCES
For future development on virtual learning facilitation

THE BOB PIKE GROUP
Creative digital training experts

EDUCATING ALL LEARNERS ALLIANCE
COVID-19 distance learning resources for teachers

CAST: UNIVERSAL DESIGN FOR LEARNING
UDL Framework and supports

BLOOM’S TAXONOMY
Framework for classifying learning objectives

POLL EVERYWHERE
Free tool for real time surveys and word clouds

JACKBOX GAMES
Games for groups available via a variety of platforms
GAMES
That can be adapted for virtual meetings

JEOPARDY
TIC TAC TOE
WORD SEARCHES
MAD LIBS
FAMILY FEUD
TRIVIA QUIZ
TWO TRUTHS AND A LIE
PICTIONARY
CHARADES
SCATTERGORIES